INDUSTRY FLASH

Fatal Forklift Incident

22 July, 2010

Today there has been a serious incident at a domestic paper mill resulting in a fatality. The deceased was struck by a forklift that was carrying a load of pulp bales.

He suffered severe injuries and passed away in hospital this afternoon.

Further information about the root cause of the incident will not be available until a full and frank investigation has been conducted. Once this has been completed a further safety alert will be prepared and circulated across the pulp and paper industry.
